Wimbledon Museums Outing & Common Walk - 19 July

Join us to visit the Wimbledon Museum Village, followed by a 1.5-mile walk across the Common to the Wimbledon Windmill Museum, ending with tea at the café. We will meet at the back of Trinity at 1pm (after the Church Meeting), have packed lunches, then travel via Sutton station and local buses. For details, contact John and Deborah Wroe on 020 8642 9064 or john.p.wroe@gmail.com. All are welcome.

Lift Fund Appeal Progress

The Lift Fund Project was launched at the beginning of May. There have been many very generous individual donations and, in addition, members of the congregation and church groups have organised various fundraising events: cake sales, cream teas, craft fair and book sales. Adding all these donations together we have raised £20,405. Much of this has been given under the Gift Aid Scheme and tax will be reclaimed in due course. Our original target was £25,000 by the end of 2026 and several other fundraising events are being planned for later in the year. Fingers crossed we should at least reach our target or even exceed it! A huge thank you to you all. Morigue Cornwell

Gift Aid – Increase Your Giving at No Extra Cost

If you give regularly to Trinity Church and are a UK taxpayer, you can boost your donations by 25% at no extra cost through Gift Aid — the church reclaims basic rate tax from HMRC on your behalf. Higher rate taxpayers may also claim further relief via Self-Assessment.

Jacqueline John and John Wroe will have Gift Aid forms at the back of church for the next two Sundays, or you can download a declaration from the website and return it to Jacqueline anytime.

Thank you to everyone who supports Trinity Church so faithfully, Gift Aid or not — every gift matters. If you're eligible, completing a declaration helps your giving go further at no cost to you.

Hymn (StF 372): Come Down, O Love Divine

Verse 1

Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine,
and visit it with thine own ardor glowing;
O Comforter, draw near,
within my heart appear,
and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

Verse 2

O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight, and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Verse 3

Let holy charity mine outward vesture be,
and lowliness become mine inner clothing;
true lowliness of heart,
which takes the humbler part,
and o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

Verse 4

And so the yearning strong,
with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace, till he become the place wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

Translated by Richard Frederick Littledale (1833–1890)

Old Testament Reading

Psalm 119: 105-112 (NRSV-CE)

105 Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.
106 I have sworn an oath and confirmed it, to observe your righteous ordinances.
107 I am severely afflicted; give me life, O Lord, according to your word.
108 Accept my offerings of praise, O Lord, and teach me your ordinances.
109 I hold my life in my hand continually, but I do not forget your law.
110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, but I do not stray from your precepts.
111 Your decrees are my heritage for ever; they are the joy of my heart.
112 I incline my heart to perform your statutes for ever, to the end.

New Testament Reading

Matthew 13: 1-9 (NRSV-CE)

The Parable of the Sower

13 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the lake. 2 Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. 3 And he told them many things in parables, saying: 'Listen! A sower went out to sow. 4 And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. 5 Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. 6 But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. 7 Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. 8 Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 Let anyone with ears[a] listen!'

Matthew 13: 18-23

The Parable of the Sower Explained

18 'Hear then the parable of the sower. 19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. 20 As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; 21 yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away.[a] 22 As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. 23 But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.'

Hymn (StF 370) Breathe on me breath of God

Verse 1

Breathe on me, breath of God,
Fill me with life anew,
That I may love what Thou dost love,
And do what Thou wouldst do.

Verse 2

Breathe on me, breath of God,
Until my heart is pure,
Until with Thee I will one will,
To do and to endure.

Verse 3

Breathe on me, breath of God,
Till I am wholly Thine,
Until this earthly part of me
Glows with Thy fire divine.

Verse 4

Breathe on me, breath of God,
So shall I never die,
But live with Thee the perfect life
Of Thine eternity.

Edwin Hatch and R. Jackson (1835-1889)

Hymn (StF 123): Come, You Thankful People, Come

Verse 1

Come, you thankful people, come,
raise the song of harvest home!
fruit and crops are gathered in safe before the storms begin:
God our maker will provide for our needs to be supplied;
come, with all his people, come,
raise the song of harvest home!

Verse 2

All the world is God's own field, harvests for his praise to yield;
wheat and weeds together sown here for joy or sorrow grown:
first the blade and then the ear, then the full corn shall appear-Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

Verse 3

For the Lord our God shall come and shall bring his harvest home;
He himself on that great day,
worthless things shall take away, give his angels charge at last in the fire the weeds to cast, but the fruitful ears to store
in his care for evermore.

Verse 4

Even so, Lord, quickly come-bring your final harvest home!
gather all your people in free from sorrow, free from sin,
there together purified, ever thankful at your side-come, with all your angels, come, bring that glorious harvest home!

Hymn (StF 566): Take My Life, and Let It Be

Verse 1

Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee;
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise,

Verse 2

Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love;
Take my feet and let them be Swift and beautiful for Thee,

Verse 3

Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King;
Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee,

Verse 4

Take my silver and my gold;
Not a mite would I withhold;
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose,

Verse 5

Take my will, and make it Thine;
It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart; it is Thine own;
It shall be Thy royal throne,

Verse 6

Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure-store.
Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for Thee,
