Christmas Puddings in Aid of the Lift Fund

Jane Oliver is making traditional Christmas puddings for the Lift Fund. No steaming needed—microwave for 2–3 minutes on Christmas Day. Vegetarian-friendly, recyclable packaging, serves 4–6. Available early December for a minimum £5 donation, with all proceeds going to the Lift Fund. To reserve: Jane, 07910 315237 / flopsybunnies@aol.com

Christmas Lunch 2026: Volunteers Wanted!

We plan to run our popular Christmas Day Community Lunch at Trinity again, offering food and company for those who want some company on Christmas Day. Volunteers are needed to help cook, serve and wash up. Sheila and Malcolm Booth will provide ingredients and prepare the pudding and turkey in advance. We need to know we have enough volunteers before we can publish the event. Please speak with Malcolm or Sheila if you can help.

Volunteers Needed: Weekly Newsletter Editors

There are changes to our weekly newsletter editorial team. Miranda Yeung will be moving on from the role after one year of dedicated service, while Fiona Jones and Simon Merren will also conclude their 10+ years of service in the near future. We are seeking two volunteer editors to help pass the torch to the next generation:

- 1 replacement for Miranda — starting immediately
- 1 new editor — joining in the near future

Training in Mailchimp, our email newsletter platform, will be provided. Volunteers may take turns with editing and proofreading.

Interested? Contact info@trinitychurchsutton.org by the end of October 2026. Thank you for helping carry this ministry forward!

Translation Service

Service captions are available in English, Cantonese, Tamil and Telugu. Register online or contact John Wroe for other languages.

Next Service Sheet

Please submit items by 7 October to miranda.yeung.uk@gmail.com. Keep submissions clear, concise, and under 100 words to maintain a consistent, readable format. Thank you.

Minister: Revd Hendry Ponniah

CUCS COMBINE SERVICE
04 October 2026, 10.30 AM

Led by

Revd Hendry Ponniah, Trinity Church Sutton
Revd Allen Bower, St Nicholas' Church, Sutton

A very warm welcome to all visitors and newcomers to Trinity this morning.

Please make yourself known to one of the door stewards or a duty deacon. Please stay for a while after the service for a cup of coffee or tea, when we can meet and get to know one another.

On most Sundays of the year, there is a Junior Church, including both a creche and a young person's group, meeting in the hall and other rooms downstairs. When we celebrate Communion, the children will return to join us in church. All children are welcome to attend Junior Church.

To contact our Minister, Revd Hendry Ponniah, please ring his office: 020 8643 6884 or email him at minister@trinitychurchsutton.org

Trinity Church, part of the United Reformed and Methodist Churches, is open-minded, inclusive and ecumenical. United in the worship of God as known in Jesus Christ, we seek to serve God through word and witness. Trinity Church, Sutton Baptist Church and St Nicholas Parish Church comprise Churches Uniting in Central Sutton. We meet regularly for worship and shared activities. We are Fairtrade churches.

An induction loop operates in this church. Please switch your hearing aid to the T position.

Psalm 133

A song of ascents. Of David.

- 1 How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!
- 2 It is like precious oil poured on the head,
running down on the beard,
running down on Aaron's beard,
down on the collar of his robe.
- 3 It is as if the dew of Hermon
were falling on Mount Zion.
For there the Lord bestows his blessing,
even life forevermore.

Sunday Prayer Group ✨ ✨ ✨

Our regular Prayer Group meets today in the Terrace Room from 11:45 am –12:15 pm. All are welcome, whether you're joining us for the first time or are a familiar face.

Bunker

Join us today, Sunday 4 October, from 6:30–8:00 pm in the Bunker Room for games, fun, and a great time with fellow secondary school students.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Weekly Bible Group ✨ ✨ ✨

Bible Study continues on Tuesday 6 October, 7:30–8:30 pm, in the Parlour Room. As confidence grows, members take turns leading the sessions, sharing their perspectives and learning together. Please read the passages beforehand if you can, but there's no pressure—just encouragement and an opportunity to explore God's Word together. Everyone is welcome. Scripture Reading

Ephesians 4:1-16 (New Revised Standard Version, NRSV)

Unity in the Body of Christ

- 1 I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called,
- 2 with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love,
- 3 making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
- 4 There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling,
- 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
- 6 one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.
- 7 But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift.
- 8 Therefore it is said, 'When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive; he gave gifts to his people.'
- 9 (When it says, 'He ascended', what does it mean but that he had also descended[a] into the lower parts of the earth?
- 10 He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.)
- 11 The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers,
- 12 to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ,
- 13 until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.
- 14 We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming.
- 15 But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ,
- 16 from whom the whole body, joined and knitted together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.

Scripture Reading

John 15: 9-17 (New Revised Standard Version, NRSV)

- 9 As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love.
- 10 If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love.
- 11 I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.
- 12 'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.
- 13 No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends.
- 14 You are my friends if you do what I command you.
- 15 I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father.
- 16 You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name.
- 17 I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.
- 18 But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.
- 19 But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Prayer of Confession and words of forgiveness

God of justice and forgiveness, we confess that we live in a world in which some are hungry even for bread, many people are sad or hurt, and there is much that is unfair and unjust. We confess that in our own lives we do not always do what is right or turn away from what is wrong. We ask your forgiveness, we claim your love and mercy, and we ask for courage to make a new beginning. In the name of Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

Prayer for grace

Eternal God, we believe the good news of your mercy and love, and rejoice that we are forgiven and free. Receive us as your children, as brothers and sisters of Jesus, part of your new community of love, and give us strength to do your will, today and always.

All Amen.

The invitation

Jesus was often a guest. He shared many meals with his friends, and they long remembered his words at the table.

Though some disapproved of the company he kept, Jesus ate and drank with all kinds of people and showed everyone the love of God. Wherever people met together Jesus was glad to be welcomed and to be fed. Today, we are the guests of Jesus.

He welcomes us, whoever we are and whatever we bring, and he will feed us at his table.

Old or young, rich or poor, joyful or in sorrow, Jesus invites us to share bread and wine with him, to remember the story of his life and death, and to celebrate his presence with us today.

On the night before he died, Jesus shared a meal with 12 of his disciples in an upstairs room in Jerusalem. The Gospel writer tells us what happened that night.

While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take; this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, and all of them drank from it. He said to them,

'This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly, I tell you, I will never again drink the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.'

Mark 14: 22–25

We are the friends and disciples of Jesus today. He invites us to break bread together, to remember him and to pray that God's Kingdom will come.

Offering prayer

We bring this bread and this wine to the table of Jesus. With them we bring ourselves, all that we are and all that we own. May the ordinary become holy, and heaven be opened to the people of earth.

May God be blessed forever!

All May God be blessed forever!

Prayers

Let us pray.

Loving God,
you have fed us generously at this table,
as we have remembered Jesus
and rejoiced that he is with us today.

We are ready now to follow him,
and to be your people in the world.

May your Holy Spirit show us the way,
make us holy and fill us with love.

All Amen.
